

Don Myers

Chief Financial Officer

Don Myers is a senior leader at Pacific Engineering, Inc. where he currently serves as the company's Chief Financial Officer. With over 35 years' experience as a manager and leader in engineering, design and construction background in Don brings a wealth of expertise to his work.

Don joined Pacific Engineering in 2011 and is responsible for financial, human resources, administration, and contract support. During this time period, Pacific Engineering has grown from a staff of five individuals and $ 1.5 million in revenue to a staff of 25 and revenue of over $ 6.0 million.

Prior to joining PEI, he was the Senior Director for Facilities and Planning for one of the largest public school districts in California, where he managed the District's 10-year, $ 350 million construction program for new construction and maintenance of schools and support facilities.

Don is a retired Major in the U.S. Army with experience as a Platoon leader and Company Commander in Combat Engineering units, Project Officer and manager for military and civil construction with the San Francisco District, US Army Corps of Engineers, and Public Works Director for U.S. Army bases and facilities in South Korea and Okinawa, Japan. In his capacity as the Public Works Director, he managed large staffs of engineers, administrators and skilled tradesmen in and planned and supervised the construction of new school buildings and athletic facilities.

Don holds a Master of Science in Civil Engineering, from Stanford University. He also is a graduate of Howard University (Civil Engineering) and the U.S. Army Command and General Staff College. He stays abreast of the latest developments and trends in industry, ensuring that his knowledge remains current and relevant. He also was an adjunct professor for the University of Southern California teaching a course on facilities planning maintenance and transportation to secondary school educators in Northern and Central California.

In addition to his professional endeavors, Don is passionate about public parks and trails. He served as member of the Board of Directors for the Sacramento YMCA and currently is a member of the American River Parkway Association that contributes to the operations and maintenance to the extensive parks and recreation trails in the Sacramento area.

Outside of work, Don is an avid runner and has run in several half and full marathons including the Marine Corps marathon, the Sacramento International marathon and the San Francisco marathon. He loves to travel to and participate in adventure activities all over the world including hiking the Camino De Santiago in Northern Spain and Portugal, the Inca Trail to Machu Pichu and most recently hiking to the top of one of the highest mountains in the world, Mount Kilimanjaro in Tanzania.